ACRY CODE OF CONDUCT

2017 National ACRY Convention
Sept 1- 4, 2017 - Pittsburgh, PA

The primary purpose of the ACRY Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants at events and activities hosted by the National ACRY, the national youth group of ACROD. It applies to all adult participants.

As a participant in this program, I will:

- Conduct myself in Christ centered and courteous manner and treat participants, parents, volunteers, staff, and others with respect. Appropriate language and behavior are expected at all times.
- Respect and adhere to the rules and guidelines of the program including all those specific to the event and its activities.
- Obey local, state and federal laws.

Any participant failing to abide by the following rules will be asked to leave immediately at personal expense.

- No use of illicit drugs
- No possession or use of alcohol by those under the age of 21.
- No possession of a weapon of any kind.
- No possession of firework or any other explosives.
- No sexual misconduct of any kind.
- No rough behavior or “horse play” during the course of the Convention that could result in injury to anyone or damages to property

The National ACRY reserve the right to remove any member from attendance whose behavior violates the teachings of the Orthodox Church and/or the rules and regulations of the ACRY, Pittsburgh Airport Marriott Hotel, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the boroughs of Coraopolis and Homestead.
