NATIONAL ACRY CODE OF CONDUCT

The primary purpose of the ACRY Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants at events and activities hosted by the National ACRY, the national youth group of ACROD. It applies to all participants.

I understand that my child is expected and has been instructed by me as a participant in this program to:

- Conduct his/herself in a Christ centered and courteous manner and treat participants, parents, volunteers, staff, and others with respect. Appropriate language and behavior are expected at all times.
- Respect and adhere to the rules and guidelines of the program including all those specific to the event and its activities.
- Obey local, state and federal laws.
- Any participant failing to abide by the following rules will be sent home immediately at personal/family expense.
 - No use of illicit drugs or alcohol
 - Smoking and the use of tobacco products by minors are not permitted.
 - No possession of a weapon of any kind.
 - No possession of firework or any other explosives.
 - No sexual misconduct of any kind.
 - Refrain from any rough behavior or “horse play” during the course of the Convention that could result in injury to anyone or damages to property.
 - Observe and abide by any and all rules of Camp Nazareth not explicitly stated here in the Jr. ACRY Code of Conduct

My child and I both understand that Camp Nazareth, together with the National Junior Spiritual Advisor and National Junior Advisor, reserve the right to remove any member from attendance whose behavior violates the teachings of the Orthodox Church and/or the rules and regulations of the ACRY, Camp Nazareth, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the borough of Mercer.
